

How do we know the cell phone do not interfere with flight deck equipment. we have a hard enough time trying to get passengers to listen to us when we do the saftey demo and you think if they can use cell phones to talk and email this will help. It will only cause more problems.